Another Exhibition of Excellence

—Geri Davis, President 2010-11

Time REALLY does fly! It seems just like just yesterday that we were together celebrating our 32nd Annual Southern Watercolor Exhibition, and now we are about to open the doors for our 33rd Annual SW Exhibition in Kentucky! Elise Beattie, SW Vice President and Exhibition Chairwoman, has done an exemplary job preparing for this show. We will have the privilege to hang our show in the beautiful Glema Mahr Center for the Arts and enjoy a special performance by the Paducah Symphony!

Elise has procured renown juror and workshop instructor, Cheng-Khee Chee for this year's show. She has gotten cash awards, merchandise awards and funding to the tune of over $15,000. We owe Elise and all involved many thanks for an incredible job. In 2011, Lou Everitt will be the Chair of the 34th Annual SW Exhibition in North Carolina. This promises to be another exhibition of excellence in a top-notch venue for our SW membership.

Our membership has grown by leaps and bounds due to the quality of our yearly exhibitions which present your outstanding work. A huge THANK YOU goes to our Board of Directors, Past Presidents and Web Master, without whose dedication and hard work we couldn't enjoy the success we do. Hope to see you all soon in Kentucky! —Geri

We still have openings for the Cheng-Khee Chee workshop.
This is a remarkable opportunity to learn from one of the finest artists/instructors in America today!

A Wonderful Turnout of Entries

—Elise Beattie, Vice President and Exhibition Chair

Happy New Year to all of our SW membership! There is a lot of Kentucky news to share with all of you. I am pleased to say we had a wonderful turnout of entries for the 2010 exhibit. We received a total of 379 paintings and our juror Cheng-Khee Chee has narrowed the show down to 95 incredible paintings for our 33rd Annual Exhibition.

By January 15, letters to all of you who have entered should be in your hands. So to those of you who were accepted I would like to say "congratulations" and to those of you who, unfortunately, did not get your painting in, please do not give up hope. Do try again and just remember there was a lot of tough competition that made the jury process very hard for our judge.

The other big news highlights the Georg Shook/Signature Members Award. SW has had an incredible turnout of generosity for this award. I want to take this moment to thank all of you who have made a donation! This award now tops $1,000, which means we will have two large awards given out, one for representational art and one for abstraction, at our 33rd Annual Exhibition.

Finally I want to remind our members of an upcoming event. Cheng-Khee Chee is teaching a fabulous workshop "Synthesizing East and West" from March 22 through 26, 2010. We still have room for more participants. You'll find the workshop registration form on page 3. Please call me for more information: Elise Beattie, 270-415-9141, or write me at artist@embart.com. You also can go to the SW web site to download more information.

Well that is all for now from the Blue Grass State. I look forward to meeting you this spring in Madisonville KY, for a day of learning and a fantastic exhibit!

—Elise

CHENG-KHEE CHEE
FIVE-DAY WATERCOLOR WORKSHOP
 HOSTED BY SOUTHERN WATERCOLOR SOCIETY
MARCH 22–26, 2010

GLEMA MAHR CENTER FOR THE ARTS AT THE MADISONVILLE COMMUNITY COLLEGE, KY
 “SYNTHESIZING EAST AND WEST”

Workshop Statement:

“I feel the purpose of a workshop should be for artistic enrichment, creative rejuvenation, and spiritual renewal. Through group dynamic and fellowship, it ultimately contributes to individual growth. In conducting a workshop, I consider myself the coordinator of a learning program in which artists share their creative ideas and processes, and provide stimulation and support to each other. I believe an environment that is conducive to learning is the one that stresses flexibility, fun, fellowship, and the spirit of caring and cooperation.

“I share all my creative experiences with the participants, but will not impose my personal viewpoints upon them. I will explain the philosophy and process, instill design principles in pictorial organization, help sharpen perception of abstract qualities, explore the possibility of synthesizing The East and West approaches, and more importantly, guide the participants to develop their own directions.” —Cheng-Khee Chee

Daily Schedule:

Each day will begin with the instructor doing a demonstration, then work with each participant individually. Note: The exploratory and experimental nature of this workshop requires participants to bring their own sketches and reference material for each day’s topic.

MEMBER NEWS

Jeannie Kantrow Sommer

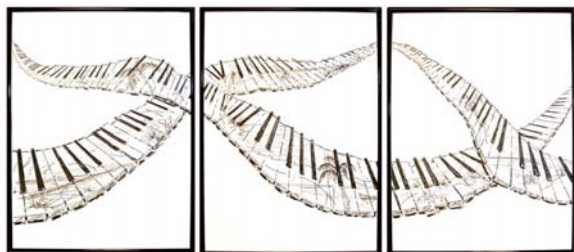

Baton Rouge, Louisiana

"A long time member of Southern Watercolor Society, Jeannie passed away peacefully on August 20, 2009. Please keep her family and friends in your prayers.

"She was a very sharing person with a great sense of humor, who loved creating, painting, and learning all she could about art even though she was crippled with rheumatoid arthritis. Even so, her attitude was great and she rarely let it get the best of her.

"She was supposed to go to the coast to paint over the Labor Day Holiday with a group of us so, we looked for brighter sunsets and rainbows to grace our trip, since she was a master of intense colors. She will be sorely missed then and forever."

—Kathy Stone, Baton Rouge, LA
SW Louisiana Rep.

Edna Wagner Piersol, Campbell CA, has been notified by the Mobile Museum of Art that her 1985 triptych ink drawing "Destin Concerto" (above) has been donated and accepted into their collection. There are palm trees boats, driftwood and beaches reflected in the keys. The triptych (each piece 28 x 32") was commissioned for a home in Destin FL. The client wanted something black and white combining Destin and music, hence the title, DESTIN CONCERTO, but many of the buyers of the reproductions dubbed it just, "THE KEYS," you know, because of the Florida Keys.

"Also, I have been invited to join the Grumbacher's Demonstrator program, which means I will be placed on their list to demonstrate wherever I am wanted by places like art stores such as Dick Blick etc." ~

Verena was awarded the Washington Garden Club Member's Memorial Award for her watercolor "My Garden Angel" (above right) at the Beaufort County Arts Council's 45th Annual Fine Arts Show in NC. ~

Elise Beattie, Paducah KY. My painting "Circle of Friends" was accepted into the Watercolor Society of North Carolina's 64th exhibit. This is #3 now so, yippie, signature membership for this state! ~

Toni M. Elkins, Columbia SC, paintings were selected as a part of The Watercolor USA Honor Societies' Japan Exchange. The work will travel during 2010. ~

Jean Weiner, Le Mars, Iowa. "Many of you in the Albany, Georgia area are familiar with the Arctic Bear (above painting). This was once a wildly popular drive in located on the corner of Slappey and Ogelthorpe. This was a very fun painting to do and personally my first night scene. Don't you think the indigo night sky sets the background for the neon sign? This just had to be a night painting!"
Prints are available:

Suzanne Reed Fine, Columbus GA. "My painting "One Moment More" got the Columbus Public Library purchase award as well as the Pat and Dexter Jordan award at the Columbus Artists' Guilds' members show. Very exciting!

Catherine Hillis, Round Hill VA, had seventeen original watercolor paintings on exhibit through December 2009 at the Center for the Arts in Manassas, VA. ~

Dean Mitchell, Tampa FL, has a show titled "Visions with Heart and Soul" appearing at St. Petersburg College's Leppa-Rattner Museum of 20th Century Art located in Tarpon Springs FL, from Feb 21 through May 2, 2010. ~

Pat Holscher, Washington NC. "I am delighted to inform you of my Gold Medal of Honor Award for "Family Dynamics" (above) in the 2009 American Watercolor Society's 142nd Annual International Exhibition. Also in 2009 one of my paintings was the Best in Show Permanent Collection Purchase Award-Winner for the Craven County Arts Council in New Bern, NC. In the spring of 2009 I was a featured artist in Public Television's Special, 'Cruising Carolina: The Sounds'." ~

Diane Schmidt, Sarasota FL. "One of my art pals said I should Google myself and see what comes up. I did, and I found a rave of my painting that was in the Pittsburgh Watercolor Exhibit last winter. I had no idea the show was even reviewed!

"Kurt Shaw, Tribune review art critic wrote, 'Another real standout among the portrait and figural type works is the piece "Soothsayer" by Diane Schmidt of Sarasota, Fla. Here, the artist has combined a delicately rendered female figure with abstract elements seamlessly.

The eye easily moves from figure to ground, making for another harmonious composition that is sure to please.' I'm excited almost a year later...!"

Diane recently won awards in Watercolor USA for "A Break with Reality", and San Diego International for "Stretching the Truth" (above), both abstracts. She won an award in Alaska, and first place in Wyoming Watercolor with "Too Many Cooks 2" for figurative works. ~

Johanna Hanks, Topeka KS, had a watercolor exhibit at the WMCA from Sep/Nov '09,

Friend for Life

Elise Meredith Beattie is a professional artist in Paducah, Ky. For the past 29 years she has shared her life with one blue Great Dane or another. Betty Jameson, Austin TX. Betty's "Wild Forest" was selected by Scott Moore for The Watercolor West XLI Annual Exhibition at Riverside Art Museum, Riverside CA, Sep–Oct 09. This qualifies her as a Signature Member in Watercolor West.

Her painting, "The Old Ford" was awarded a Special Recognition prize of $25 by Cindy Brabec-King at the 37th Annual Edge of the Cedars Art Show, Cedar Edge, CO, June 2009.

Betty's painting, "In The Garden" won First Place in Painting and $250 at the 62nd Annual River Art Show and Sale at La Villita in San Antonio October 2-3, 2009.

Betty has received three Special Recognition Merit Awards for artwork in the 12th Annual All Media Juried Online International Art Exhibition hosted by Upstream People Gallery. Juror Laurence Bradshaw, Professor of Art at the University of Nebraska at Omaha, states about this specially recognized work: "Betty Jameson effectively uses collage and acrylic together. Quite dramatic in the rhythm of light and dark and warm and cool is her piece "Aspen On Ice". Vertically presented, "Heart Throb" (above left) is a wonderful abstraction of the concept. And "Inside Out" (above right) with its intense yellow and red-orange and the smaller intricacies in the central part of the composition, is another of her strong works."

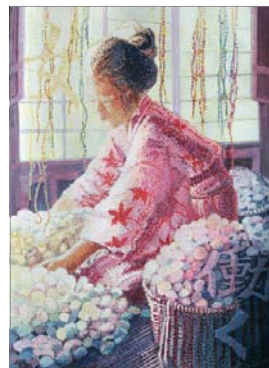

The exhibition will be featured online during Jan 2010 and continue for 12 months, closing Dec 31, 2010 at www.upstreampeoplegallery.com ~

It's Membership Renewal Time!

Please join us for another interesting and informational year by filling in the form on page 8 of this newsletter and sending it with your 2010 dues. Then, take a moment to read below and decide how you can contribute your time and knowledge to this professional, but friendly, artists' organization!

Geri Davis: "SW Membership Chair, Suzanne Fine, has been our membership person for 5 years and is preparing to step down from that position. Suzanne has done an exemplary job in getting our membership roster in order and up to peak membership, keeping track of over 550 members. She has always solved the inevitable problems when dealing with so many people, and has done so in a gracious, professional manner."

Suzanne: "I don't know what to say really, except that I have honestly enjoyed doing this job. I have gotten to know so many of the members and their artwork in these past years! We have a very talented group of individuals in the southern U.S.!"

Geri: "We all are sad to see Suzanne "retire", but she has asked us to put out the word to our membership. So, if there is a member (maybe you?) who enjoys working with wonderful artists and being associated with a great organization...the Southern Watercolor Society...please contact Suzanne, or any SW Board member, or your State Rep listed on page 3."

Suzanne: "Everything is computerized and pretty straightforward to pick up on for those interested in taking it over! And I will be available for assistance and questions too. It has been fun, but I am looking forward to doing some other things and focusing on my painting a little more!"

Geri: "Again, thank you, Suzanne, for 5 wonderful years!" ~

Don and Keniesha

Don Taylor's opening reception in October '09 at the Visual Arts Center in Panama City, Florida was the climax of many hours of work on the part of many folks. Don could be found painting and painting for days and weeks ahead of time, then his daughter-in-law prepared much of the food for the opening.

Sharing the spotlight with Don was a young artist named Keniesha who was a student in one of the VAC art classes. During the initial financial crisis for the VAC, Keniesha's mother wanted to have a birthday party for her at the VAC. When they did, Keniesha asked for everyone invited to help the VAC in lieu of presents! They raised $600 to contribute! Keniesha was given an award on the opening night of Don's exhibition, and her mother bought one of his paintings as well!
