PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

By: Michele Tabor Kimbrough

This year was our first year as a National Organization and I am super impressed by the exceptional artwork in this year's exhibition. We had 95 works of art at the Panama City Center for the Arts (PCCA), Panama City, FL. And for the first time a two-month exhibition. Our juror, Lynn D. Pratt, had a challenging task to pick who gets in the show and who wins an award!

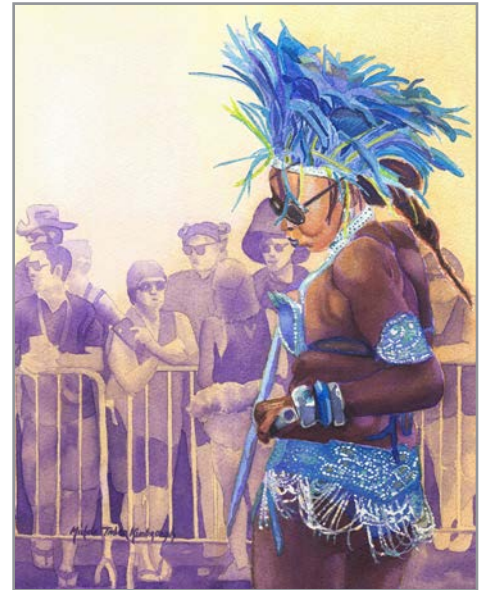

Jason Kretzer, Director of Panama City Center for the Arts (PCCA), and his team provided excellent concierge service ensuring all works were unpacked, displayed, and repacked. They made our work as volunteers a breeze.

We had a full house of workshop participants for Lynn D. Pratt's 3-day workshop painting a box of crayons. With each crayon needing to have its own set of colors, Lynn made the process of keeping everything straight very easy to follow. Thank you, Lynn, for sharing your knowledge and experience!

Your board members also did a lot of work from start to finish. Gwen Kodad and I managed the Call for Entry, CAFÉ' site for all our applicants. Thank you everyone for entering! Gwen is also our tech guru who manages our website and our membership database! Don Taylor, Exhibition chairperson, coordinated all venue requirements, our juror, and workshop, as well as awards. Diane Simon pulled together all our award certificates and ribbons. Tuva Stephens is our social media gal and Marilynne Bradley is our Historian. And finally, Jean Weiner keeps our treasury in tip top shape. Thank you, team, for all you do!

We also want to thank all our members for continued support of this organization!

47th EXHIBITION CHAIRPERSON 2024

Don Taylor
Event Chairperson

Southern Watercolor Society's 47th Annual Juried Exhibition was an exceptional event thanks to all the people involved in its planning and execution.

Our organization has developed a great working relationship with the Panama City Center for the Arts as the PCCA has hosted our exhibit more than any other venue! Jason Kretzer, director of the PCCA, along with his staff has always provided fantastic support for our exhibit. Thanks to the enthusiasm and dedication of the PCCA staff, this exhibit has surpassed all expectations! Thank you to the PCCA and the City of Panama City, FL.

Here in Panama City, we are truly fortunate to have the unwavering support of our home town for art exhibits such as this!

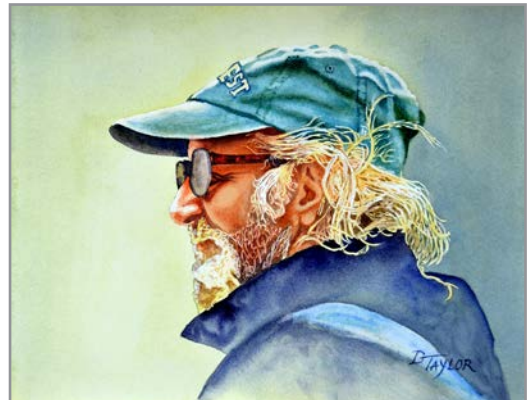

In addition, the Southern Watercolor Society board of directors worked tirelessly to coordinate all the details that go into shows such as this. Thanks to all my fellow board members!

SW President Michele Tabor Kimbrough guided all of us through the steps of the exhibit to make it so successful. She deserves many thanks for keeping us focused on the job at hand.

Our judge, juror, and workshop instructor Lynn Pratt did an outstanding job in selecting a great, diverse group of paintings. Then, she had the difficult decision in selecting award winners because there were so many wonderful paintings. Finally, Lynn taught an excellent workshop for many local and out of town artists!

We thank all the attendees at the opening reception and subsequent exhibit and hope that we have provided a truly great display of watercolors!

Don Taylor, Exhibition Chair

JUROR'S STATEMENT

Lynn D. Pratt
Juror of Awards

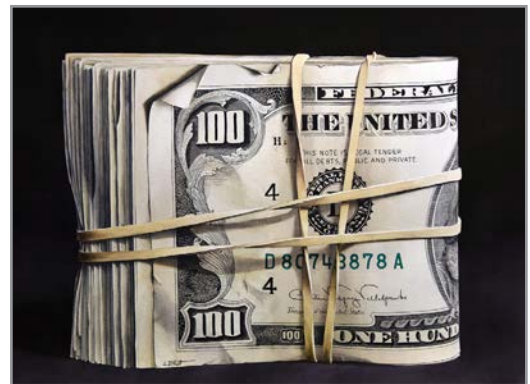

I want to thank the Southern Watercolor Society for the honor of judging this amazing show. It was very difficult to pick which paintings made it into the exhibition, let alone which ones received an award. The variety of work was very diverse and it was all of exceptional quality and skill level. I spent many hours walking through the gallery and enjoying this artwork over many days. I was truly blown away by such a great collection of paintings.

When judging art work there are many different things that I consider. I make my way around the room or through the gallery of images and just look at every piece of art in the show first. Then on the second round, I start evaluating them once I get a feel for the full body of work. The first thing that catches my eye is usually the creativity and originality of a work. Something different from what you normally see always sticks out. I evaluate composition, color, technical ability and the artworks' ability to elicit an emotion as the main criteria. I also take into account making sure there is good representation of all styles of work in a show to make the overall exhibition a success.

I want to encourage all artists that entered but did not get accepted, or were accepted but did not win an award. This was a great show and many artworks that did not make the entry cut and the awards cut were still fantastic paintings. Unfortunately, there always has to be a cutoff somewhere. Often something not accepted into one show will get accepted into another or even win an award. Always keep painting and keep trying!
