PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

By: Linda Pelc

The 42nd Southern Watercolor Society Annual Juried Exhibition showcased the beautiful work of artists who live in the South. Many thanks go to Al Zirkel, Program Director of the Kerr Art and Cultural Center, and his staff, along with the volunteers who helped hang our paintings. The job of organizing this exhibition was shared by all members of the SW Board of Directors. This core group of dedicated artists works as a team. Individually, they are highly creative; each one paints, teaches workshops, and is involved in their local watercolor societies. As a team, they are energetic, dynamic super heroes passionately uplifting our members and promoting the art of watercolor.

Jeanne Heise held the key position of Event Chairperson for this exhibition. Living in Kerrville, Texas, she was familiar with the Kerr Arts and Cultural Center and knew the local artists. Jeanne planned for and organized the workshop and events leading up to the opening reception and award ceremony. She saw to the needs of the workshop participants and hosted the juror, Judy Morris. Volunteers from her local Guadeloupe Watercolor Group assisted Al Zirkel, Program Director of KACC, in unpacking all the shipped paintings.

Don Taylor, past President and Fundraising Chairperson, solicited art supply companies to donate merchandise awards. Jean Weiner kept close track of the monies from dues and application fees. Most importantly, she pays the bills. Coco Dauer, Membership Chairperson, manages and updates members' contact information. She also assigns the points toward signature status for artists invited to show in our exhibitions. Marilynne Bradley, Past President and now Historian, maintains the records of our accomplishments.

The Board of Directors' ability to communicate with membership lies in the hands of three outstanding Board members. Tuva Stephens, Past President, handles social media. Ann Kromhout is the Webmaster. Robbie Fitzpatrick creates the newsletter and is the editor for the catalog of our shows.

Last year, we welcomed Kathy Simon-McDonald and Vandy Shake to the Board of Directors. Kathy was the Event Chairperson for the 41st SW Exhibition in Bradenton, FL. Both sit as Members at Large and contribute to discussions that lead to important decisions. This year, we welcome Lori Pitten Jenkins to the team as a Member at Large. It is important for the health of the Southern Watercolor Society that this core group grows. Any member who has a strong passion for creating and promoting the art of watercolor is welcome to be part of this team.

Next year, the 43rd Southern Watercolor Annual Juried Exhibition will be held at the Custom House in Clarksville, TN. The juror and workshop instruction will be Mark Mehaffey. Keep painting, and make plans to apply to this show.

As Exhibition Chairperson, I am proud to represent the Southern Watercolor Society and the 42nd Annual Exhibition. Kerrville Texas is blessed with a beautiful gallery space at the Kerr Arts and Cultural Center. We worked as a team along with members of the Guadalupe Watercolor Group (GWG) to hang this beautiful show and host the visiting artists and guests at our opening reception. I can't thank my GWG members enough for all of the effort they put into making this a very special event for our area. Al Zirkel and Teri Velentine of KACC deserve a big "Thank You" also for their tireless efforts behind the scenes. Bringing top quality art to Kerrville is our mission, and we are very pleased with the results.

Judge's Statement

Judy Morris

Juror of Awards

I had a WONDERFUL visit to Kerr Arts and Cultural Center. Everything about SW was A+!

I viewed everyone's submission several times at my studio in Oregon on my computer. Thank you for giving me so many excellent watercolor paintings to choose from. I had to make hard decisions.

When I first viewed the show hanging at the Kerr Arts and Cultural Center, my first thought was: Every painting in this exhibit deserves an award. Since I knew that wasn't possible, I spent hours choosing the 24 award winners. The 2019 SW EXHIBIT is one of the most professional and successful exhibits I've seen. CONGRATULATIONS to all !

GOOD FRIENDS

Helping Al Zirkel, KACC Programs Director hang the 42nd Exhibition were the following members of the Guadalupe Watercolor Group:

Jeanne Heise, Doris Tyler, Connie Fluegel, Glenna Hartman, Debby Jascur, Susan Vogel, Margy Brand, Marsha Mefferd and Ginger Cullins.

Southern Watercolor Society is grateful for their help.

Kerr Arts and Cultural Center is proud to welcome the Southern Watercolor Society to the Avery Gallery in this our 20th anniversary year. KACC's building previously served as the Post office in downtown Kerrville since 1936. Empty and in rather derelict condition, a group of local artists were able to envision a new use for the building, an arts and cultural center to anchor an important corner of the downtown business district. With only their vision in hand they approached local silversmith James Avery, who generously provided much of the funding necessary to purchase the building. Once they gained ownership of the space they soon realized the monumental task that would be required to transform the building into a functioning art gallery. After many hours of volunteer labor scrubbing and cleaning, an idea for a fun and innovative fundraiser was conceived – the Armadillo Trail. It featured 53 fiberglass armadillos decorated by local artists which were then auctioned off and displayed in businesses around town. With the necessary funds raised, renovation began in earnest on the three galleries housed in the space today, the Derby, the Cornels and the Avery Galleries. We are pleased to reach this milestone year and to feature the selected works from the 42nd Annual Juried Show of the Southern Watercolor Society.
