We're Having

Fun!

What happened to January and February? They say, "Time flies when you're having fun!" We must be having a ball! I DO know that we all have been working long, hard hours so you, our members, will experience an unforgettable 34th Annual Juried Exhibition in Greenville, NC. Our Co-Chairs, Lou Everett and Judy Dye have arranged one of the most exciting events that SW has hosted.

On the first evening of the Eric Wiegardt Workshop, Tuesday April 12th, is the evening of the Wine & Cheese Book Signing at Uptown Art, University Book Exchange. Eric's books will be available for purchase and a personal autograph!

Events continue on Friday, April 15th with an evening social hour, dinner, and a painting demo by Kate Worm at the Greenville Country Club. A big morning on Saturday the 16th, brings us our SW Members' meeting, Wiegardt demo, awards presentation and luncheon at the Rock Springs Center.

Saturday, April 16th is the day we've been waiting for...the Opening Reception of the 34th

Geri M. Davis
President
2009–2011

Exhibition at the Greenville Museum of Art! Have you planned ahead to attend the activities? Please let us know by sending your registration form located on page 7 of this newsletter.

Thank you Lou, Judy and all of your committee members for organizing such an exciting 34th Annual Exhibition. Most of the volunteers for this event work full-time jobs and THEN work long hours into the night on Southern Watercolor Society business.

This year's SW Exhibition Committee was blessed with an oil painter, Roseanne Marie and her husband, Bill Peters! What a perfect combination for our 2011 SW Exhibition Entry Chairs. We have had the MOST professional, smooth sailing entry, jurying, and notification process I have ever been witness to. You both are real patrons of the arts! Thank you for a job well done!

I personally invite you to come to the 34th Annual SW Exhibition in Greenville. The artwork in the exhibit is spectacular and with the activities planned, we'll be having fun!

—Artfully yours, Geri

Gathering No Moss!

—Geri Davis, President

As Vice President and now as President, I've had the pleasure of working with incredible SW Board Members this past year! Recently Linda Pelc, Tallahassee FL, became our Membership Chair and Dale Cochran, Easley SC, became our Website Designer and Co-Webmaster. They both bring valuable expertise to our Board and we thank them for coming on "board".

Speaking about the great history of volunteerism in SW, Ann and Ethan Kromhout have done an incredible job in sorting through years of SW membership files and records in order to update and verify current information. This has been a daunting procedure for which SW will be forever grateful!

There are some positions within the SW structure that still need volunteer help. The following states are without a State Representative: Delaware, Florida and Tennessee. If you are located in one of these states and would like to represent your state in SW affairs, please let me know.

Looking ahead to 2012, our 35th Annual Exhibit will be held in the gorgeous north Georgia mountain town of Sautee Nacoochee, with Jim Thomas, SNCA Gallery Director, becoming our 35th Chairperson. Southern Watercolor Society is on a roll...we're gathering no moss! I truly believe the motto of this group is, "What can I do to make it work for you!?" Hope you will join us! —Geri

2011 SW Dues

As you may remember, SW dues are to be paid January 1st of each year and are delinquent by March 1st. We appreciate our renewing and new members who submitted their 2011 dues on time!

Jan Ledbetter, Williamsburg VA, has been juried as a Signature Artist member of the Baltimore Watercolor Society.

One of her paintings (right) from her "Maya of Chichicaste-nango" series was selected for the National Watercolor Society 90th Annual Exhibition 2010 and also for their Travel Exhibition. Another painting from this Roseanne Peters of Midland GA was our 34th Entries Chairperson, which means she opened every CD that you entered, she saw every painting that was sent to the juror, and she had a delightful response to them!

"After seeing what has been produced by members of the Southern Watercolor Society, I have a whole new attitude toward watercolor artists. WOW!!!! There are a considerable number of pieces that are truly outstanding, and I'd like to have at least a basic education on how it's done. I have never worked with watercolors. Not that I am such a purist, just that I was raised on oil and acrylic so that's what I've done for lo these many years. It's time to expand my horizon, and I'm sure Geri (Davis) is just the person to teach me how." —Roseanne M. Peters

90 Paintings by 90 Artists

Speaking of the 34th Exhibition, congratulations to 90 Southern Watercolor artists whose paintings (one per artist) were accepted by juror Eric Weigardt for the upcoming exhibition in Greenville. These were chosen from 428 paintings that were entered by 237 artists!

"I know he (Eric) spent many hours deciding (selecting), because I was present, and realize he does not take this lightly. He was just agonizing over the last few he needed to remove and there are many that were so close to being in the show. It was so much fun to see all these wonderful paintings, there is a lot of talent in your group."

—Christl Mack, Wiegardt Studio Gallery

MEMBER NEWS

series was juried into the San Diego Watercolor Society International Exhibition 2010 where it received the Ana Drobnies Award. Jan holds Signature Memberships in the National Watercolor Society, Southern Watercolor Society, Virginia Watercolor Society, and Baltimore Watercolor Society. ~

Jim Hardin, Hernando MS. It was good to hear from Jim who is a Charter Member of Southern Watercolor. He described a show acceptance in the Allied Artists of America, Inc. 97th Annual Exhibition at The National Arts Club, NYC. "This was an exhibit of oil painting, watermedia, pastel, graphics and sculpture, with awards in each category. They had a Jury of Selection of 4 judges and a different 4 judges for awards." Sounds like a powerful show! ~

Also, the American Watercolor Society selected Jan Ledbetter's "Maya of Chichicaste-nango XI" (above) for their 2011 Exhibition and Traveling Exhibition. ~

Today, share this newsletter with a non-member!

Welcome to Greenville, North Carolina! 34th Annual Juried Exhibition of Southern Watercolor Society

A couple of new notes of information to add to the list of activities. At the Wine & Cheese/Book signing on Tuesday, April 12 from 5–7 pm, in addition to visiting with our juror, Eric Weigardt, members and guests will be able to enjoy a lovely show of watercolors painted by WSNC President, Jeff Jakub and other board members in the Uptown Art Gallery at University Book Exchange.

Please also add to your list of opportunities a Wine & Cheese Social to be held on Thursday evening, April 14, 2011, from 6–8 pm, by City Art Gallery in the Lynndale Shoppes. They will welcome SW members and guests from 18 states plus DC and honor Kate Worm (first place recipient of WSNC 2010 award)! While this was mentioned in a previous newsletter, it is not listed on the pre-registration form and one does not have to pre-register to attend!

Space is still available in the 4-day workshop with Eric Weigardt, April 12-15. Therefore the deadline for the workshop has been extended. If you're interested, please do send the full amount in as soon as possible. Eric rarely makes it to the east coast so don't miss this opportunity to visit with him or participate in the workshop. His students speak very highly of his workshops and of him as a very generous, kind, and knowledgeable teacher.

Judy and I are very appreciative of the local support given to the Steering Committee by the SW Board of Directors, Greenville Museum of Art staff and Board of Directors, Uptown

Lou Everett and Judy Dye

Greenville Association and the Pitt County Convention & Visitors' Bureau, and many others.

We are especially appreciative of our local patrons, Uptown Art Supply & Gallery at University Book Exchange; Ward Holdings, LLC; and Powell Financial, whose owners are supporting some of the top tiered awards for this show! Other N.C. and local donors include City Hotel & Bistro, WSNC, City Art Gallery, A. R. Chesson Construction Co, Inc., Chico's Mexican Restaurant, Elite Fence Company, and Paint it Purple & Other Colors. We look forward to introducing you to these fine folks who eagerly await your arrival!

For more information about the various events, the August and November 2010 issues of the SW newsletters are available by Googling "Southern Watercolor Society" and clicking on the site then on "Newsletter."

If you haven't sent your registration form (see page 7), please do so right away so we can save you a seat! For questions about the event registration, contact Lou Everett, everettl@ecu.edu, or Judy Dye for workshop information, jadye@embarqmail.com. Please join us in as many events as possible. This will be an exhibition week that you, our members and friends, will not want to miss!

City Hotel & Bistro is giving special rates to our artists, and they are donating a seven-night stay for our juror. Please pass along a big thank you to them. Call (252) 355-8300 or see their website at www.cityhotelandbistro.com ~

Eleven Ways To Get The Most From Your Next Art Workshop

— June Rollins, WSNC, SW

"Most of us invest in workshops and often with varied outcomes. I've recently written a column that I think others would find beneficial based on my experiences as a student and an instructor."

Below are two excerpts from the column, written by June Rollins, that she wants to share with us. She emphasizes 11 valid points for enjoying your next workshop experience.

1. "Having Fun Yet?" Your inner artist loves to play and often goes into hiding when things are taken too seriously. Delight in observation and discovery. As one beginning teacher once told me, "It's only paper, flip it over."

2. "Enjoy Being With Other Artists." Taking a workshop is not just about learning new techniques. It's also about meeting other artists and sharing ideas. Take the initiative and break the ice during free times and lunch. A good ice-breaker question: 'So, what other instructors have you studied with?' There are also the enriching friendships that can be formed. An artist I met in a beginning watercolor class in 1999 is still one of my closest friends today, eleven years later."

Introducing...

In the SW welcome letter to new members, we ask if they would like to be included in the newsletter. Below are our two most recent responses from new members that we are happy to introduce and welcome to our Society.

Pat Perkerson

Asheville NC

Pat was born in what is now Zimbabwe and has lived in England, Australia, and Saudi Arabia, but has spent most of her life in the U.S. Since moving permanently to Asheville NC, she still travels as much as she can, and her work often reflects the people she meets and the environments she sees when she travels.

"I work in several different mediums; clay, mixed-media sculpture, watercolor, and mixed-media collage. I am continually inspired by my travels, which take me all over the world, but primarily to South-East Asia.

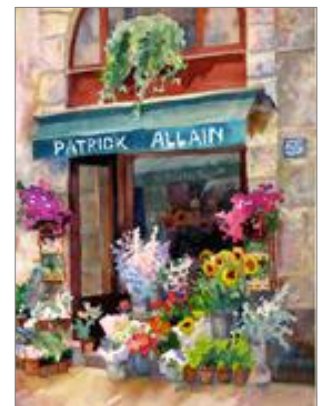

"I'm an enthusiastic gardener, and am interested in plants from different countries. I take my watercolor supplies with me wherever I travel, and paint on location. My floral watercolors have been painted in numerous countries. I am also fascinated with portraying the human face and body in many different mediums. My watercolor portraits reflect my interest in people of many cultures and my continuing experience in theatre is often reflected in my work, particularly my sculptures and art dolls." —Pat

"I grew up on a farm in Iowa and think I painted every 'Paint by Number' kit available as a child. It was just something I had to do. When I went to college at the University of Colorado, a whole new world of art and architecture opened my eyes. I had the opportunity to take numerous art and architecture courses. I can still recall that first smell of oil paint in the classrooms, even today.

"An avid desire to explore and 'see the world', combined with a study of art and architecture, helped to define my style of painting as it is today. Light and texture are primary to my compositions, in which I try to capture the essence and feeling of the many places seen and traveled.

"After practicing interior design for 25 years while continuing to paint and enter shows, my work was accepted into a gallery in 1985. I have been in three California Galleries, teach watercolor workshops internationally, am the cover artist for the Karen Brown Travel books, have co-authored a book and am often called to demonstrate or to be a juror. This is a wonderful "way of life" and I feel quite fortunate to be able to call this my work." —Jan

MEMBERSHIP

Be Alert!

Remembering to pay Society dues each year is easily overlooked by busy artists...and all of us do stay busy, don't we? SW tries to remind you by including the SW membership form on page 8 of each newsletter.

You'll notice it says dues shall be paid annually on or before January 1st of each year. Dues are delinquent after March 1st. We do not prorate dues! So, if a member pays their dues in June or July or August, their dues are only active through Dec 31st of that same year!

Delinquent? What does that mean? It means you'll be removed from the current SW roster, will not receive newsletters or the full-color Exhibition catalog for that year, nor will your name appear in the Member's section of the catalog. And, by skipping a year of dues, you'll lose your Active or Signature status in our Society! That's not good!

If you haven't paid your 2011 SW dues yet, do so immediately and maybe you'll be in time to receive a 34th Catalog. We'll try to save one for you, so mail your form and dues check now! ~

Laurin McCracken, Leland MS. I had a one-man show at the Roger D. Malkin Gallery at The Greenville Arts Council in Greenville MS in Jan & Feb.

There were feature articles about my work in the following publications: Catching the Light, Southwest Art, December 2010; Real Life Reflections, Delta Magazine Jan/Feb 2011; When Art Imitates Life, Delta Democrat Times, Sunday, January 30, 2011.

Special Recognition was awarded to four of the five paintings of mine that are included in the 12th Annual Realism Juried Online International Art Exhibition in the Upstream People Gallery, www.upstreampeoplegallery.com. This online exhibition will run from 1 February 2011 until January 2012. ~

ART TOUR

October 24–Nov 3, 2011
Cultural Tour of Guatemala
Jan Ledbetter, NWS
You're invited to join me on an Explore Guatemala Tour where you'll discover a country with extraordinary natural beauty of rich Spanish Colonial heritage and a place where the Maya dress and live much as they did centuries ago.

This trip is planned around one of Guatemala's most important holidays, All Saints Day with one of the highlights being a visit to the Mayan Giant Kite Festival in Sumpango. Throughout the trip, artists will be meeting for instruction, drawing and painting "en plein air" and from indigenous models.

Of all the places where I've traveled, this is absolutely my all-time favorite destination. It will be my 5th time to return to this lovely country and my 4th time to give an Explore Guatemala workshop. (Optional add-on to Copan, Honduras, Oct. 22 - 24.)
