GEORGIA
2012

We're Almost There...

—Ann Kromhout, Secretary/Newsletter Editor/35th Entries Chair

Just visualize those beautiful Northeastern Georgia mountains and imagine the fun and inspiring weekend we'll be having soon. And the Frederick Graff Watercolor Workshop the following week still has some openings. Remember the workshop registration deadline is May 1, 2012, and you must be an SW member to attend. The registration form is on the insert of this newsletter and membership form on page 4.

Registration for Meals

For all SW members who are attending, there are times we are gathering together for meals and meetings. Jim Thomas, SNCA Gallery Director, is making all the arrangements for us, but he needs to know how many folks will be attending. Please, please, fill out the SW MEALS & EVENTS RESERVATION form (insert page) and send him your checks for the meals that you choose. Thanks for confirming your information a.s.a.p.!

Accommodations

On page three you'll find a list of accommodations in the area around Sautee Nacoochee. Better make your cabin, B&B or hotel reservations

NOW! Space is filling up rapidly because of all the weekend events. Page two gives you more information about these happy activities. And you can discover some additional adventures in the charming town of Alpine Helen, Unicoi State Park, the SNCA History Museum and Indian Mound, the Folk Pottery Museum, and more, and more...

And for our BIG EVENT, the JURIED EXHIBITION...out of 425 paintings entered by 230 of our SW artists, Juror Frederick Graff has chosen 90 paintings to grace the walls of the Sautee Nacoochee Center. If you haven't received your SW confirmation letter by now, it will be arriving in your mail box soon. Such an exciting time for some and bitter sweet for others. Wish there were a gallery large enough to hang everyone's paintings, but no... —Ann K.

And more to come...soon!

Next year's Southern Watercolor 36th Exhibition—2013 will be opening just eight months after this 35th one! We are honored to be invited for a return visit to the Gadsden Arts Center in historic downtown Quincy, Florida. This active town is located just above the beautiful beaches on the Gulf of Mexico...during a perfect time of year to stroll along the water in cooling breezes under blue, blue skies.

The 36th prospectus will be mailed Oct 5, 2012. For those entering, receipt of membership dues for 2013 and the entry deadline is scheduled for Nov 9, then the exhibition's opening reception will be February 8, 2012. Better start painting now! We want to see you there. ~

12 Rivers Art Festival Arriving June 9 at SNCA

The third annual 12 Rivers Art Festival will take place on the grounds of the Santee Nacoochee Center on Saturday, June 9 from 10:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m.

This outdoor event showcases artists from Georgia, Florida, South Carolina, North Carolina and Alabama. Each artist will be juried to participate in the Festival. Artists who exhibited in 2010 or 2011 are automatically accepted into this year's Festival.

The 12 Rivers Art Festival is in conjunction with the Northeast Georgia Arts Tour. It also is the same weekend as the opening of the Southern Watercolor Society's 35th annual meeting, month-long exhibition and five-day watercolor workshop to be held at the Santee Nacoochee Center.

In addition to the art exhibit there will be food vendors as well as live music and entertainment.

For artists interested in participating in the Festival, application forms are available by going to the SNCA website: www.snca.org or by contacting jthomas@snca.org. Deadline for submitting an application is May 15, 2012. ~

Artist Terri Benfield Wins 12 Rivers Poster Contest

Terri Benfield of Clarkesville GA won the third annual 12 Rivers Art Festival poster contest. Her lovely watercolor, "The River", shown above, captivated the hearts of the three poster contest judges. As the winner of the poster contest, Terri will enjoy a booth space at the outdoor Festival at no charge. ~
