BEST OF SHOW

Sue Pink,
Poetic Process
$1,750

Mark Mehaffey: "The painting is a true poetic and visual feast. It is compositionally solid to a 'T' with enough asymmetrical placement to avoid regular repetition. Active areas invite close inspection and are balanced with larger quiet shapes. Cursive script is readable but acts as a textural element that makes the viewer think. This work reveals something new with every view."

2020

Southern Watercolor Society

GOLD AWARD

Miles Batt II, Saintly Migrations

$1,500

Mark Mehaffey: "No matter where you look there is something to think about within this painting. Occasional equidistant spacing is expertly counter balanced with different sizes, different configurations and unexpected color use. The shapes are personal and symbolic, a thoughtful, creative painting."

Mark Mehaffey: "This painting is a compositional masterpiece with all converging lines and shapes leading the viewer toward that light filled lower left quadrant. Loose, expressive washes are balanced with just enough hard edges to direct the eye. The title alludes to a socially conscious visual statement about wealth and hardship."

Southern Watercolor Society

SILVER AWARD

Dean Mitchell, Tobacco Wealth in the Weeds

$1,250

2020

Southern Watercolor Society

BRONZE AWARD

Vera Dickerson, Blue Gown Waltz

$1,000

Mark Mehaffey: "This is a painting of lively layers. This is a mindful work in Pentimento, revealing the history of its layers within the successive additions and subtractions. There are just enough quiet areas to balance the exuberant activity."

2020

Southern Watercolor Society

GEORG SHOOK AWARD

Chris Krupinski, Guava and Grapes

$500

Mark Mehaffey: "The painter exhibits a high degree of technical skill combined with an artistic vision that elevates the common into Art. The subtle violet within the shadow shapes creates a vibration with the complimentary yellow vase and Guava fruit that excites the viewer."

2020

Southern Watercolor Society
WATERCOLOR SOCIETY OF ALABAMA

Karen Fletcher-Braverman,
String Theory Particles
 $250

Mark Mehaffey: "String Theory and Particle Physics combines with a visual pun. This painting brought a smile to my heart with every viewing...and it made me hungry. The long vertical format accentuates the string and leads the viewer to that frosting with 'particles'."

Southern Watercolor Society
GEORGIA WATERCOLOR SOCIETY AWARD

Gari Stephenson, The Strummers
 $250

Mark Mehaffey: "Contrast in intensity is used well in this painting. The artist has directed their performance toward the main figure, right of center. She has done a wonderful job of connecting the whole as one dynamic shape."

2020

Southern Watercolor Society

POTOMAC VALLEY

WATERCOLORISTS AWARD

Howard Kuo,

At the Corner of Spring and Winter

$200

Mark Mehaffey: "A landscape that is not traditionally painted or constructed. It is a creative solution about the idea behind the work. It is a visual story to be enjoyed."

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

By: Michele Tabor Kimbrough

While I compose my message for the 43rd Annual Exhibition, the entire world is practicing social distancing, washing hands, and staying home due to the COVID-19 pandemic. Like many other watercolor societies, art centers and museums, we the SW board had to also cancel the physical exhibition and place it online on our SW website. As we grappled with this new world, we all pulled together over video meetings. We found out that we like meeting this way since we all live in different cities and states.

Tuva Stephens, our event chairperson, managed the process between the board, Terri Jordan (Curator of Customs House Museum) and Mark Mehaffey, our juror and workshop instructor. She's also our queen marketer on social media! Linda Pelc managed the online application process and our catalogue. Don Taylor pulled together our fundraising for our awards and Jean Weiner kept us straight on the monies. I worked with Ann Kromhout to put the exhibition on our website. CoCo Dauer managed our membership dues and data while Marilynne Bradley and Kathy Simon-McDonald kept us straight on all aspects of our work.

We are very grateful for Terri Jordan's graciousness in helping us to decide to cancel or continue as planned. Mark Mehaffey, our juror, was extremely flexible with jurying online even though this is not the same as seeing the artwork live.

We are also very grateful for our accepted artists who had to endure the changes and to our members who we dutifully serve.

May all of us come out of this pandemic event with a greater appreciation of our family and friends and hopefully a renewed focus on creating.

COVID-19 Hope

Expectation versus Reality

The year of 2020 started out to be an exciting and a busy year with much anticipation of travel and acceptance into art exhibitions. Plans were made for travel. There would be “NO” anything such as travel, school, sports, or church. I had written in my art journal, “This is going to be a YEAR TO REMEMBER!” We did not see this Pandemic coming and the effects it would have on all our lives. We sheltered in our homes and tried to, “Stay Safe”. During these times the wearing of paper or cotton masks and gloves became a necessity.

The Mark Mehaffey Workshop was to be filled to capacity! I tried to imagine how excited the 20 artists would be in learning “new ways” to create interesting techniques of layering. Not one workshop participant ever cancelled due to the corona virus. Deposits were returned because they just kept ‘hoping for the best.’ In reality the Riverview Inn returned our check for Mark’s week long lodging.

That was when the reality set in. The truth was the Pandemic of COVID 19 had ruined everything, and it would kill many people. There would be NO shipping of accepted paintings to the Customs House in Clarksville, Tennessee. We still remember how wonderful the SW exhibition had been in 2015. We would NOT be shipping “accepted paintings” anywhere. There would be no “actual” or “real” exhibition. No paintings for SW would hang on the walls of the Customs House Museum. It would have been an exceptional exhibition of a variety of styles and subject matter.

We hope for the best and are optimistic that our lives will return to normal one day in the near future. Please enjoy our ONLINE SW EXHIBITION, and we will look forward to other SW Exhibitions in the future.

Respectfully,

Tuva Stephens NWS TWSA SW

Judge's Statement

Mark Mehaffey

Juror of Awards

Juniper

10

It is both an honor and a heart-felt responsibility to be the juror for the 43rd Annual Southern Watercolor Society Exhibition. As an artist I know what it feels like to share your best work for an exhibition. The quality of the entries was excellent. I did my best to select a show that was balanced in terms of content, genre and technique. To those who were selected, bravo. To those who were not selected this time, keep on, we need your visual voice. Selection criteria included: engaging ideas/content, a design that reinforced the idea and technical facility that was integrated with both content and design. Art created in the time of the Corona Virus will be felt and viewed differently. Paintings are best evaluated in person. With stay at home orders and social distancing, this in person viewing could not be done, wisely so. Many hours were spent viewing all accepted paintings via my large computer monitor. The paintings selected for awards stayed in my mind's eye and I formed a personal attachment with each work. It is that connection with Art, and those who create it that will see us all through this most trying time.

With Respect, Stay Healthy, Mark E. Mehaffey AWS-DF, NWS

Clarksville Montgomery County Museum began operations in 1984 in the historical Customs House building at the corner of 2nd and Commerce Street. In 1996, the museum expanded into the full 50,000 square foot campus that made this the second largest general interest museum in the state. Our mission is to collect, preserve and interpret historical, artistic and scientific material and our vision is to expose the widest audience possible to the creativity and ingenuity of the human spirit through art, science, and history.

With approximately twenty-five changing exhibitions each year, we love to partner with high quality artistic organizations. The Southern Watercolor Society certainly ranks among those. In a community that is very enthusiastic about watercolor, bringing the SW here is a welcomed treat for our guests. And while current circumstances do not allow for us to take in this year's stellar exhibition in person, I hope everyone takes the time to view the amazing paintings online and perhaps visit the artists' personal websites to learn more about them. The talents of such skilled painters working in a variety of watercolor manipulations is something to behold. And we at the Customs House Museum and Cultural Center look forward to when we can display the SW Juried Exhibition once more in our galleries.

A Tribute to Ann Kromhout

Ann decided to retire from Southern Watercolor Society and we the board have the pleasure to express our gratitude for her service and friendship.

Rarely in life do you have the opportunity to work beside someone with a true servant heart. Ann has that very kind of heart! She has graciously devoted countless hours over many years to the organization, sharing her graphic design savvy in our printed materials, website and communications. Often one of the first to roll up her sleeves and share her knowledge and input, Ann's responses are always kind, thoughtful and professional. By example, she has inspired so many others, myself included, to give the best they have to offer. Thank you, Ann, for all that you have selflessly given and done and all those you have touched by your service! Jean Weiner

I consider myself truly fortunate to have known and worked with Ann since 2007. In so many cases, people in volunteer positions have to be cajoled into accepting responsibility. Ann, however, readily jumped in at a time when she was so desperately needed and fulfilled so many duties for so many years, it's hard to imagine life without her! Always willing to help and offer guidance, Ann was a pillar of stability for SW. Ann, you will always be remembered as a gracious and faithful leader in this society. Thanks to you (and Ethan) for all you have done! Don Taylor

Ann is the heart and soul of the organization. She is more knowledgeable than a set of encyclopedias. Hubby helps with the technical stuff. We will miss her organizing us into a well-oiled machine. Thank you for all you do. Marilynn Bradley

Ann Kromhout has been a stalwart worker bee who has put in thousands of hours of her time and effort into making and keeping Southern Watercolor Society members up to date with her artful web and graphic designs. In addition to her most recent position as web designer, Ann has held several other positions within the Southern Watercolor organization and has handled each in her exemplary, quiet and professional manner. Ann has retired from our board to spend more time with her husband Ethan, and all her wonderful ideas and quiet counsel will be greatly missed. Kathleen Simon-McDonald

Ann is such a lovely lady. She was always there to help me and encourage me to learn the ropes of SW starting in 2013. I knew I could call on her anytime. She edited so many SW catalogs and made sure it was as perfect as possible. Thank you Ann for all that you have done for Southern Watercolor Society. Love, Tuva Stephens (Thanks also to Ethan.)

Ann Kromhout stands tall as that perfect rose in a garden of many beautiful flowers. She is the epitome of Southern grace that oozes warm hospitality. I first met Ann in 2006 as she welcomed me into the Tallahassee Watercolor Society. I was a newly retired transplant from the north and wanted to become part of the art scene in Tallahassee, FL. Ann became my guide and mentor. She knew the business of managing an art society. She led by example. I am forever grateful for her wisdom and for her friendship. Linda Pelc

In the few years I have known Ann, she has been a wonderful teacher, and mentor to me. Her knowledge of Southern Watercolor Society, is boundless. I'm not sure what we will do without her, as her contributions have served as a foundation on which this Society has been built. She will be missed, not only for her wisdom in all things SW, but for her kindness, patience, and caring she has shown to all who worked with her. So, dearest Ann, as you enter this next chapter, my dear friend..."Be Happy!" CoCo Daur

I could not help pulling out these descriptive terms from everyone's dedication that I believe describes to me, Ann!... Knowledgeable, Savvy, Professional, Stalwart, Selfless, Devoted, Servant Heart, Gracious, and Inspiring. The Heart & Soul of Southern Watercolor! Thank you for your service and most of all friendship. Michele Tabor Kimbrough

In 2021, the 44th Southern Watercolor Society Annual Juried Exhibition will be hosted by the Gadsden Art Center & Museum in Quincy, FL. The Juror for this exhibition will be David R. Smith, AWS, NWS. david@dsmithfineart.com . This exhibition will open April 23, 2021.
